

Curtis L. Bartell

Independent Consultant

Summary of Expertise

Over 21 years of experience in contingency planning and enterprise support related to emergency preparedness, emergency response, nuclear/radiological planning and response, continuity of operations, continuity of government, and counter terrorism programs

Experience

Safety Solutions International, Inc. : Present

Covenant Park Integrated Initiatives, Inc.: 2007 - Present
Independent Consultant

- President and CEO of a small business targeting consulting services to public and private institutions pertaining to operational and organizational risk assessment, mission assurance, business continuity and emergency preparedness programs

Center for Security & Emergency Management (C4SEM):
2010 - Present

Senior Advisory Board Member, National & International Policy Strategist

Commodity Futures Trading Commission (CFTC): 2008 – 2010

Chief Security and Continuity Programs

- Managed, directed and administered all aspects of the CFTC's security, continuity, risk assessments and emergency preparedness activities and compliance for all personnel, facilities and resources nationwide

L-3 Communications: 2007 – 2008

Program Manager

- Managed continuity of government program policy, planning and preparedness; provided oversight of personnel and resources supporting the Federal Emergency Management Agency's Office of National Continuity Programs, the White House Military Office, and the Homeland Security Council

U.S. Senate Sergeant at Arms: 2005 – 2007

Executive Manager for Continuity Programs

- Responsible for all continuity programs for the United States Senate; managed and coordinated staff, resources and facilities to support continuity of operations, business continuity, continuity of government and enduring constitutional government planning, preparedness and response activities of the U.S. Senate, its member offices, committees, member state offices and other Senate organizations; served as team leader for Senate relocation and crisis management activities; coordinated continuity-related program planning and preparedness with U.S. House of Representatives, Library of Congress, Architect of the Capitol, Attending Physician, U.S. Capitol Police, Government Printing Office and the Government Accountability Office

U.S. Department of Labor, Emergency Management

Center: 2001 – 2005

Director

- Responsible for all Emergency Management, National Security and Homeland Security program oversight for the Department of Labor, including national level program management and oversight, strategic direction, budget development/management/authority, policy development and implementation, intra-agency coordination among the department's ten agencies, interagency representation and coordination and emergency response facility management

U.S. Department of Energy, Office of Emergency

Operations: 1990 – 2001

Program Analyst

- Responsibilities included: national level policy development and program implementation of the Department's: 1) National Security Emergency Preparedness Program, 2) Comprehensive Emergency Management System for the nuclear weapons' production, processing, storage and dismantlement complex, radiological waste and remediation sites, crude oil stockpiles, hazardous material processing facilities, storage, and transportation, and energy research facilities, 3) support to catastrophic disaster response to the energy supply infrastructure, and 4) international emergency response policy, training, exercises and foreign emergency assistance

U.S. Department of Energy, Office of International

Affairs and Energy Emergencies: 1984 – 1990

Management Trainee/Special Assistant to the

Deputy Assistant Secretary

Defense Logistics Agency, General Administration,

Curtis Bay Ordnance Depot

Department of State, U.S. Embassy

Supply Manager

Education

Bachelor of Arts, Political Science, University of Maryland
Baltimore County
Graduate-level course at the Johns Hopkins School of Advanced International Studies
Seminars at the Harvard School of Public Health
Federal Executive institute, Senior Executive Service graduate, Leadership in a Democratic Society
German language training

Registration and Certificates

Security clearance: Active TOP SECRET
Sensitive Compartmented Information (SCI) eligible; held from 1990-2006
Department of Energy 'Q' (top secret/national security information/restricted data/classified nuclear weapons design information and related sigmas) 1990-2001